

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Hon. Joseph M. F. Ryan, Jr.

Joe:

I wanted you to know that I personally looked into this case. I know your feelings on people serving and I agree with you 100 percent. This case does appear to be justified in view of the demands being placed on this unit, which will include overseas travel for [REDACTED]. He is a relatively senior analyst, a grade GS-15. I certainly hope you would see your way clear to approve this case. I would appreciate it very much. [REDACTED]

Personal and Confidential

Honorable Joseph M. F. Ryan, Jr.
Superior Court of the District of Columbia
Building B - Room 319
Washington, D.C. 20001

Dear Judge Ryan:

Reference is made to the policy agreement dated 16 March 1973 regarding jury duty by employees of the Central Intelligence Agency in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia. With respect to overt employees of the Agency, it was agreed that the Agency would not request excuses from such service except in unusual cases. We feel such a case has arisen and request your consideration in deferring the jury service of [REDACTED] for approximately twelve months. He has been summoned to appear in the Superior Court on 8 January 1974.

The Agency currently is carrying a very heavy responsibility in supporting important U.S. policy and diplomatic efforts. These include the provision of intelligence support to balanced country and abroad during most of 1974. Meanwhile, the intelligence research and production must continue to be conducted by this Agency to provide the substantive basis for U.S. participation in all of these activities.

NOTE:

Per conversation with Judge Ryan's office
on 7 Jan, [REDACTED] was excused from jury duty.

STATINTL

[REDACTED] is one of a relatively small number of professionals involved in this work. We are already stretched thin, and are not in position to fill in behind him over more than a few days' time.

STATINTL

STATINTL

Accordingly, we would appreciate your assistance in this by deferring [REDACTED] jury service as requested above. If you require any additional information, [REDACTED] of my office [REDACTED] will be pleased to brief you.

STATINTL

With personal regards, I am,

STATINTL

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

John S. Warner

IMPORTANT NOTICE

1. Jurors who are not employed by the Federal or District of Columbia Government will receive for each day's attendance $20 plus mileage at 10¢ per mile from residence to court and return. Government employees, both Federal and District, will receive their regular pay without deduction from other leave authorized by statute, plus mileage. *

2. If there is grave illness in your family or a similarly serious problem which would cause an undue hardship or extreme inconvenience if you should serve as a juror, you must appear in person on the Monday immediately before the date shown above, at 9:30 a. m., at the place shown and explain the facts relating thereto. You will be free to depart from the courthouse as soon as the judge has ruled upon your excuse. Bring with you any supporting letter from your physician or other persons. This appearance will not entitle you to service or mileage fees.

3. If you are physically unable to appear on the Monday mentioned in paragraph 2 above to request excuse from jury service because of illness, you must notify the court immediately by letter, describing the illness. You should use the back of this form for your letter; and if you are under the care of a physician, the letter should be accompanied by a certificate from your physician.

4. Unless you receive a notice from this court granting a requested temporary excuse, or unless the court notifies you by card or phone to report at a different time, you must attend as directed in this summons. Failure to obey this summons may be punishable by fine and/or imprisonment.

5. Please fill out the enclosed card and return it at once in the enclosed free postage envelope whether or not you are, or wish to be, temporarily excused.

6. The U. S. Marshall has no control over the jury lists and cannot excuse any person from jury duty.
